A tool for the emoval of weeds and/or debris from grates, anchors, propellers, CLAIMS motors and platforms attached or a part of aquatic vehicles comprising:

- a) an elongated curved rod;
- b) a multi ridged hand grip section at one end of the rod; and
 - c) a weed and/or debris removing tined section at the other end of the rod.

The tool of claim 1 further including an aperture opening at the end of the ridged grin handle for a strap or chain for added security and leverage and storage options.

The tool of claim 1 constructed and arranged to float.

A tool for the removal of weeds and/or debris from grates, anchors, propellers, motors comprising

- a bow shaped cylindrical solid rod; a)
 - cross-hatched ridges at the hand grip end of the rod; and
 - two times connected by a brace bar protruding from the other end of the b) c) rod.

5

The tool of claim 4 further having a round boring hole located towards the end of the handle grip end for a strap or chain for added sucurity and leverage and torage options.

The tool of claim 4 constructed and arranged to float. 6.